The Story.

He was among the group called Makoy Choir of the University of Lagos. While he was in higher institution as a creative arts students in Unilag. He experience a thorough training and rehearsals in the Makoy Choir as they rehearsed in several occasions before the Musical Concert.

He first participated in a Musical Concert. During the Musical Concert Olusola was position as Bass Singer among the Makoy Choir and then Olaolu Lawal was the choir master of the group in University of Lagos Department of Creative Arts. For the Musical Concert, Classical Music and Native Airs for 100 And 200 Practical Exam which took place on the 30th April 2007 in Arts Theatre, at the Unilag. He major in visual arts at 300 Level in 2008 and graduated in 2009/2010 with a degree Hons. Bachelors of Arts, in Visual Arts.

On the other hand, in 8th of April 2017 when he had a dream while he was sleeping and at the same time singing in a dream an inspirational song title "Help of God".

Has he woke up from the dream. The lyrics of the song kept ringing in his spirit as he continue to sing. He wrote down the song and worked on it. And this the lyrics of the song below.

His my Helper,
In the time of trouble
His my Helper
In the time of need
His my Helper
And Helper in everything

Although he tried to use as many lyrics in different chorus. But he later cut of 50% of the lyrics and maintained short lyrics. So he quickly used is phone to record the song and edited it as he Uploaded it online on social media Facebook, Instagram. And later spread the songs on music platform like ReverbNation, SoundCould, SoundBirth, Songdew as campaigns.

Later, he found one of the gospel recording studio known as Gracefield Studio where he managed to interacted with the studio managers and he took picture while singing in a posture and posted it online as he joined a music platform known as Music in Africa on 3rd May 2019.

Furthermore, Olusola has already register a business name under the Corporate Affairs Commission in Nigeria. And the name is Solart Studios Ent where he rehearses, write and composed the lyrics of songs in collaboration with Creative Arts Solution Foundation a non-governmental organization.
